

Schedule

at a GLANCE

RESILIENCE WEEK

HOSTED BY THE ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

5TH - 9TH DECEMBER 2016

NAIROBI-KENYA

Day 1

Monday 5th December - Field Visits

FIELD TRIP 1

- 9:30 Departure from Radisson Blu
- 11.00 Arrival at Rural Site - Limuru
Delegates will visit 2 farms managed by Sunculture The farms are examples of how the right technology, offered with the right support through the private sector has transformed the resilience of two small holder farmers.
- 13.00 - Departure from Sunculture farms
13.30 Packed Lunch
- 14.30 Arrival at Urban Site – Mathare Slum Spatial Collective Limited
Spatial Collective Limited is based in the Mathare slum area of Nairobi. It uses Geographic Information Systems for community development. It supports communities to identify available resources and apply this knowledge in development initiatives specifically waste management..
- 16.30 Departure from Mathare
- 17.00 - Arrival at Radisson Blu
17.30

FIELD TRIP 2

- 13.00 - Departure from Radisson Blu
13.30 Arrive at Kibera slum
- 14.00 Tour of Human Needs Project (HNP)– Kibera Slum
Winner of the Aspen Big Ideas award 2015 the HNP aims to provide basic services (clean water, sanitation and energy) and empowerment services (business skills training, microcredit, wifi, health kiosk, and a green marketplace) to slums around the world through the creation of replicable, self-sustaining Town Centers.
- 16.00 Tea at HNP cafe
- 16.30 Departure from Kibera
- 17.00 - Arrival at Radisson Blu
17.30

Day 2

Tuesday 6th December

- 9:00 Welcome and Introductory Address
- 9:40 Why build Africa's Resilience?
Making the Case for Resilience.
This session will provide an overview of new and emerging ideas around the dividends that result from a resilience approach. The rationale for resilience will be explored from varying perspectives.
- 10:40 BREAK
- 11:10 Resilience in Practice – What are the Dividends?
Panel discussion exploring cross cutting themes on resilience application within the context of agriculture, cities and livelihoods.

- 12:40 BREAK
- 13:45 Putting Resilience into Practice
A series of side sessions providing an expanded opportunity to understand and learn how a resilient approach works in practice in various thematic areas

Option 1

The Resilient City

An exploration of emerging practices in reframing urban planning and development to build more resilient cities. The session will showcase a series of activities in global practice in building urban resilience.

Option 2

Building Resilience in Agriculture

An in-depth examination of resilience within African agriculture. The session will define and position climate smart agriculture within this wider space, and interrogate the aspects of the approach that engender resilience for farming communities.

- 15:15 BREAK

Option 1

15:45 Developing Resilient infrastructure and technology

Expanding understanding on new technologies and approaches that are being used to develop resilient infrastructure in a fast changing world.

Option 2

Disaster Resilience – Resilience, Disaster Risk and Security

Exploring efforts in place to reduce the impact of the climatic and other shocks and stresses facing Africa. This session will explore emerging challenges with regards to disaster including insecurity.

- 16:15 BREAK

- 16:30 Day one closing session

- 17:00 CLOSE

- 18:00 An Evening with Bellagio - Cocktail And Dinner at The Radisson Blu Ballroom

Day 3

Wednesday 7th December

9:00 Welcome and recap

9.20 Building Resilient Communities

A virtual field trip into how two communities are repurposing themselves in the age of resilience.

10:10 BREAK

10:40 Resilience Application

Option 1 Design, scale and replication of resilient innovations and approaches.
Interrogating why and how some innovations go to scale.

Option 2 Financing resilience at a micro scale
Exploring current innovative approaches to financing household resilience.

Option 3 Financing resilience at a meta scale
Exploring innovative approaches to improving local and national resilience.

Option 4 Information management for use and adaptation.
Unlocking information for increase resilience. Spotlighting innovative information generation, analytics and use.

12:10 BREAK

13.10 Resilience Café

Networking session bringing participants responsible for making change together with resource persons and specialist organisations with experience in ideas, policies, services and products that build resilience in a range of topic areas.

14:45 BREAK

15.15 Building the Field of Resilience

Panel discussion

This panel discussion will explore how different organisations can contribute to building effective mechanisms and structures necessary for building a cohesive field to propel resilience on the continent and beyond.

16.15 Concluding remarks

17.00 CLOSE

